Reflections

Carefree, thoughtful, and ambitious—by turns, the student's world always reflects itself in varied, but appropriate activities:
a carefreeness reflected in the light-hearted eagerness of shooting down a slippery slide;
a thoughtfulness reflected by the tranquil solitude of a crisp, fall morning;
an aspiration reflected in the intense concentration of an ambitious apprentice.

Carefreeness:
a zany, youthful attitude reflected in the convivial atmosphere
at a football game;
the congeniality of exchanging a choice joke
or a colorful bit of gossip;
the fearlessness of taking a quick ride on a fast sled;
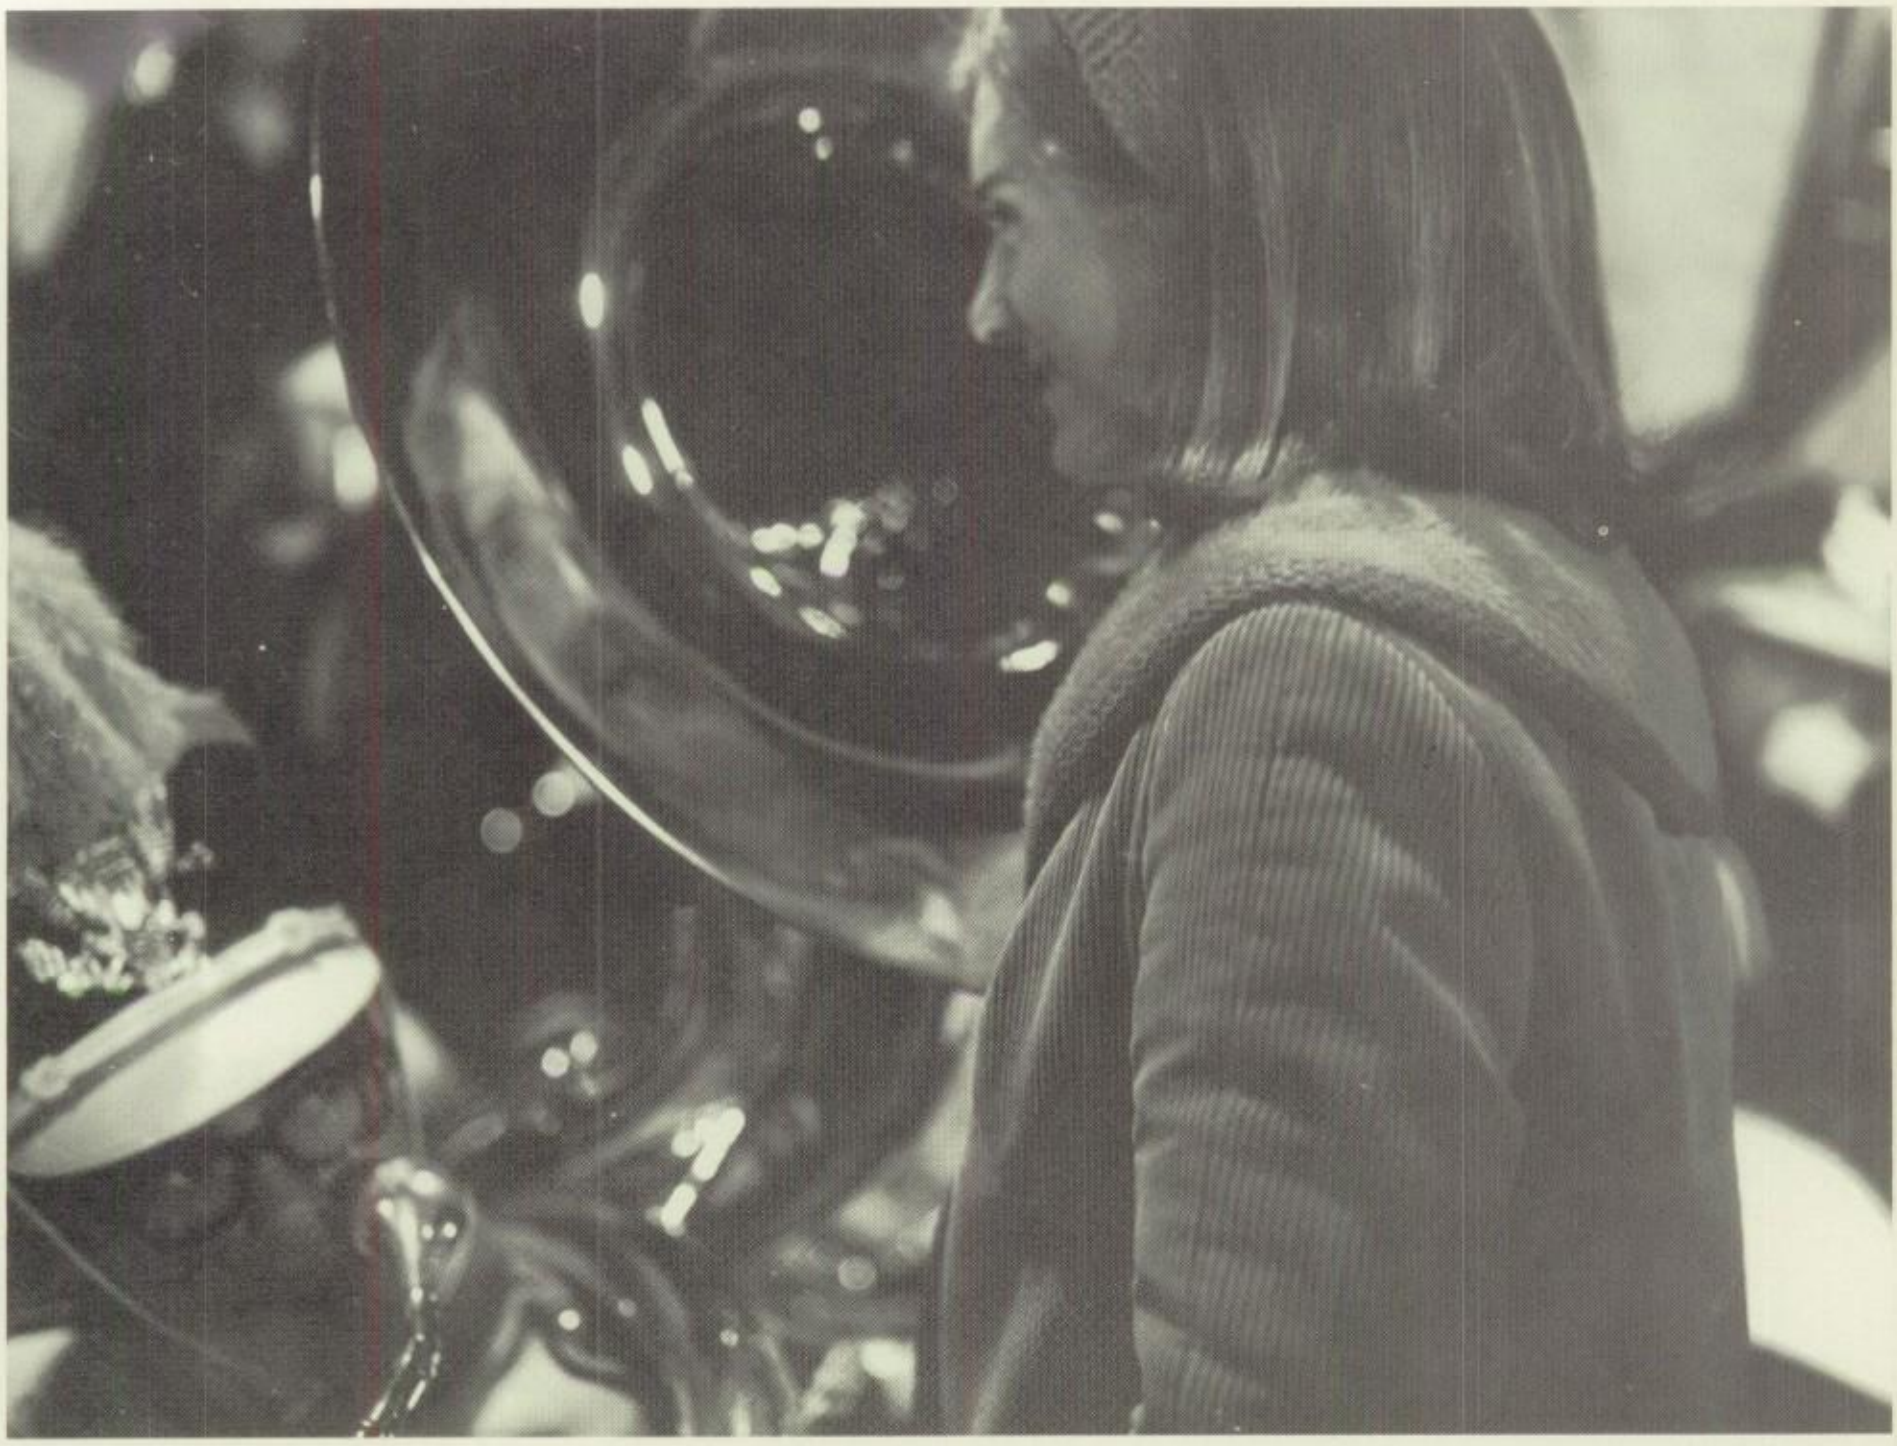
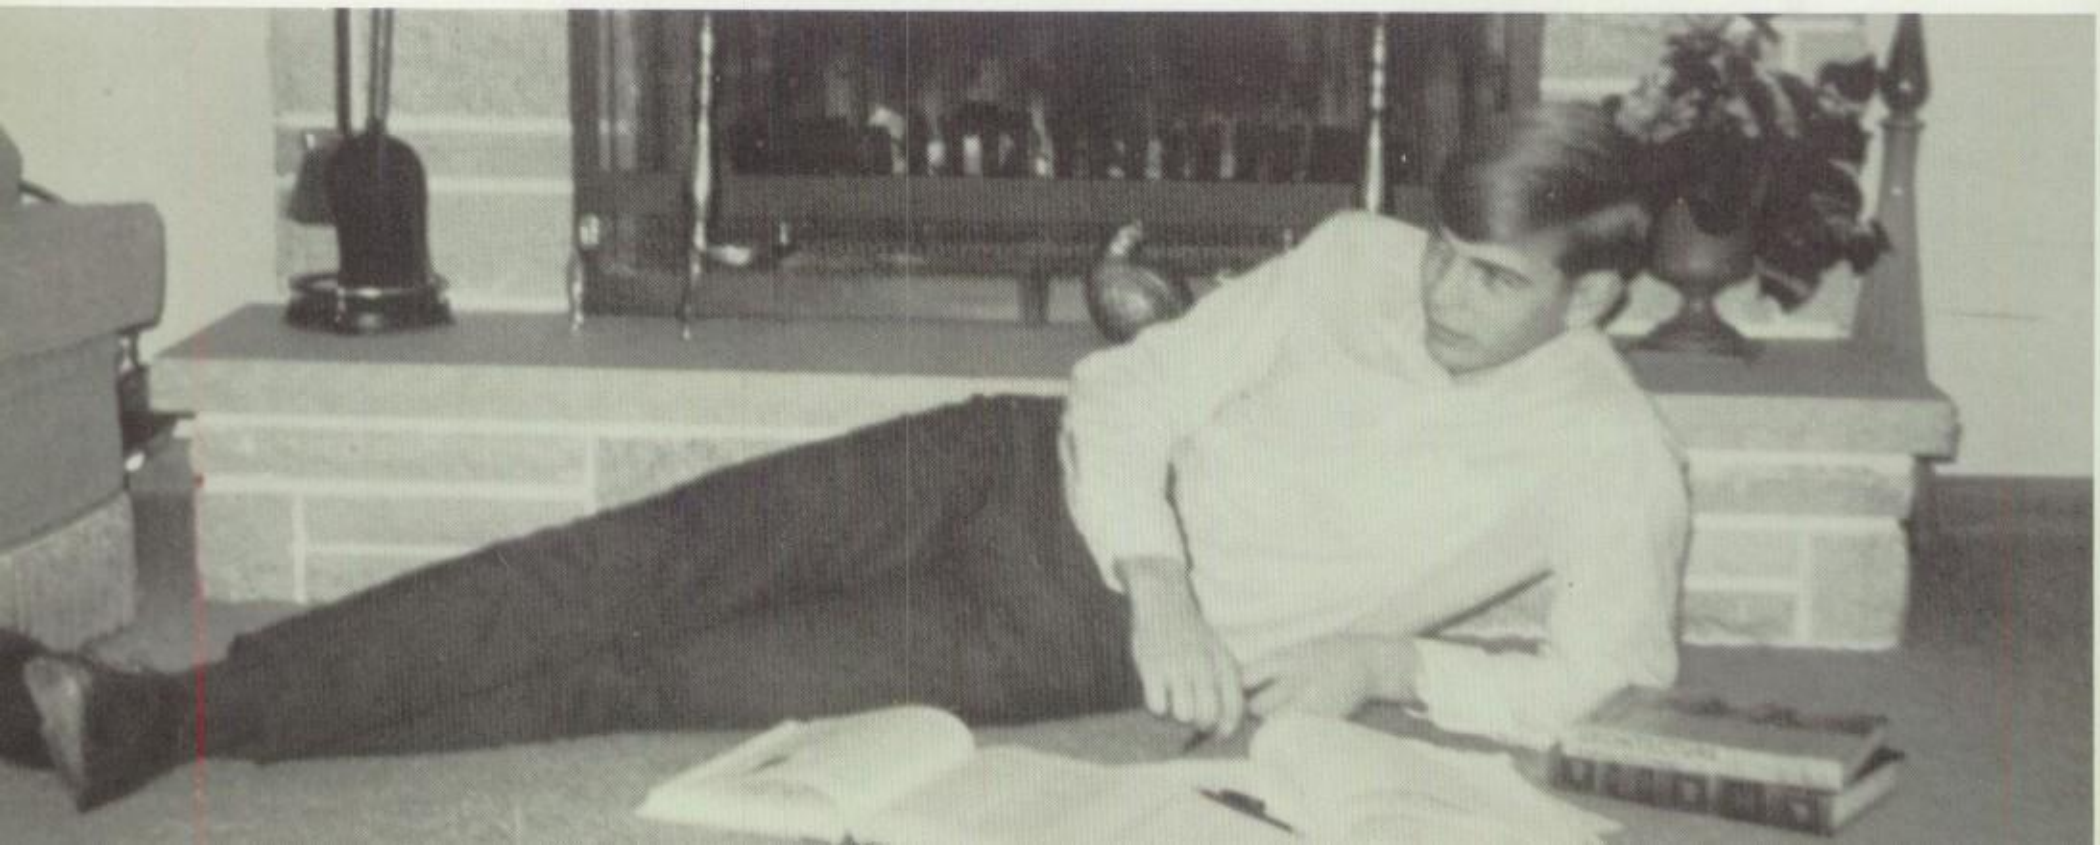
the excitement of a dance
in a glistening winter wonderland.





Thoughtfulness:
while walking near a woods on a bleak, winter's day—
a time to quietly reflect on the sometimes blurred memories of what once was;
while outwardly striving to untangle chemical formulas or interpret the poetry of the ages—to ponder the future with anxious anticipation;
while daydreaming
during a brief moment of relief from the long hours of research and study—
to just drift in reverie, oblivious of the world around us.

Aspiration:
the enthusiasm
which drives us to our ultimate goals reflects our present endeavors of learning to instruct, transcribe, and compete efficiently and effectively;
we nourish a sincere urge to find meaning in life—
relevance, significance;
and usefulness;
". . . to strive, to seek, to find,
and not to yield."

Pep Club

One of the year's major events, Homecoming, is sponsored by our Pep Club. A lot of time, planning, and work bring forth the pep parade, queen announcement, the dance, and coronation. In addition, the club is responsible for our lively pep assemblies and skits, and for the cheerleading try-outs. Pep Club, advised by Miss Stueber, boasts the largest membership roll in the school by numbering over six hundred. Pep Club —"fire up for a victory!"

Valentines for Viet Nam

G.A.A.

G.A.A. has ended another successful year of athletic and social events. The Buddy Hike to Luhman's Woods started it off. Field hockey and tennis were innovated into the list of G.A.A. activities.

The Christmas formal, "Mistletoe Magic," was one of the prettiest dances yet, with its red velvet ribbons, iced mirrors, and sprigs of traditional magic.

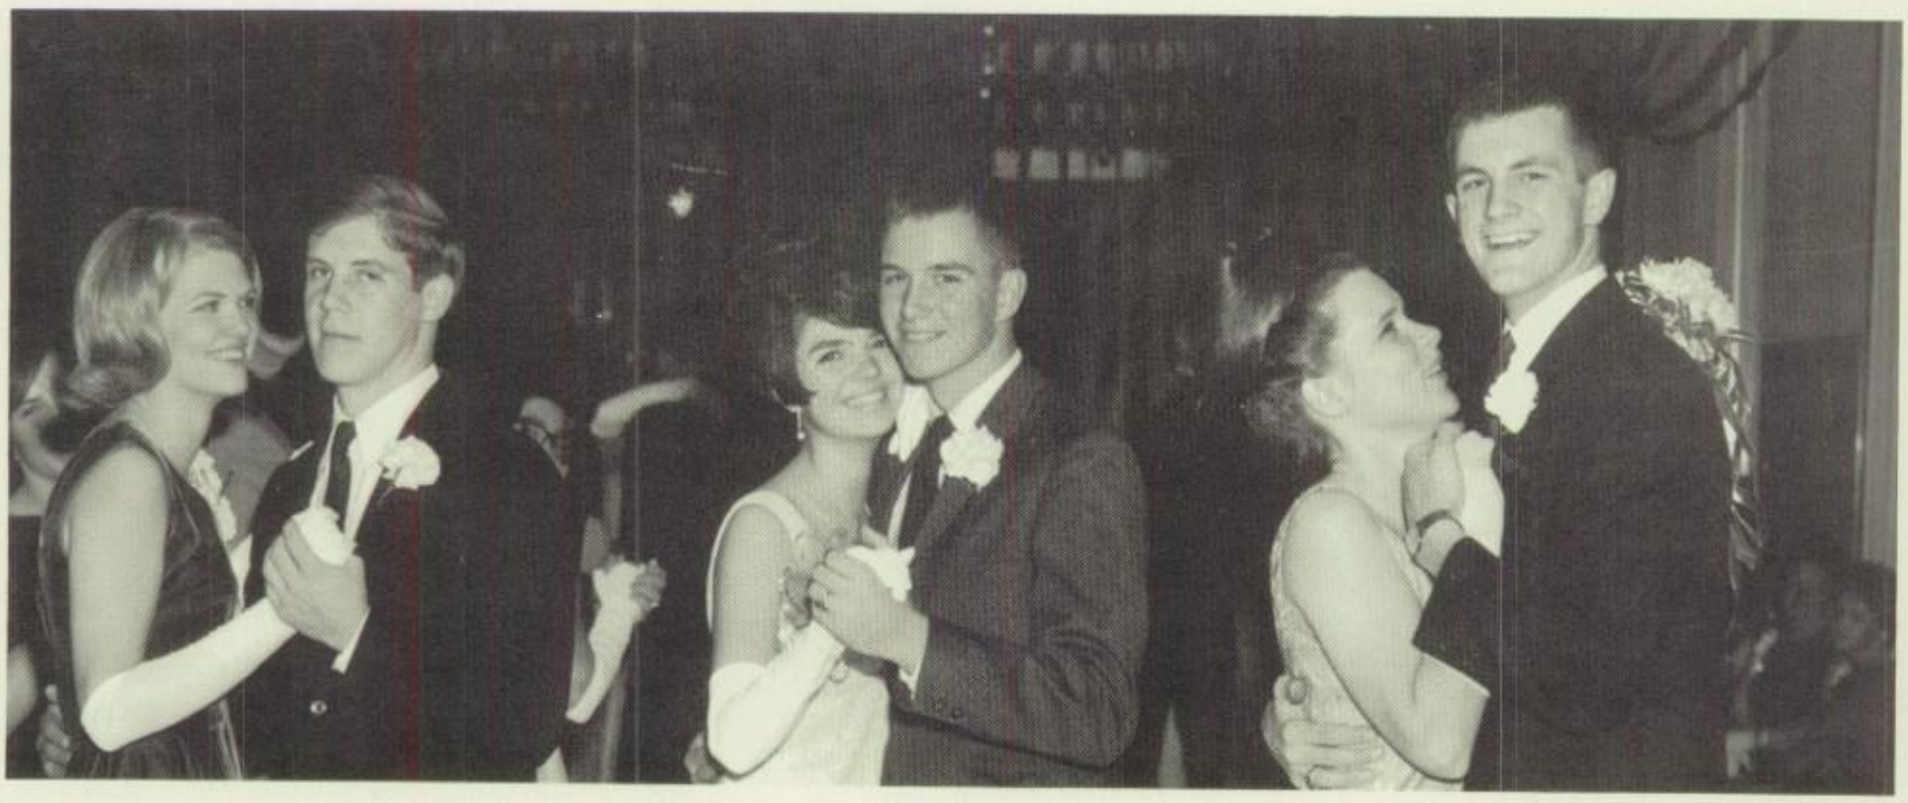
For Valentines Day the girls sent cookies and valentines to the men in Viet Nam. The cookies totaled over 14,000. The constitution was rewritten. A child was sponsored overseas. A trampoline was purchased for the school by the G.A.A.

"Dancin' In the Street" was the Spring highlight. The new mod styles were worn, and the atmosphere was pure Greenwich Village.

The year was topped off with the Mother-Daughter Banquet. With tears of sadness, the Seniors bade farewell to their years of G.A.A.

Charge of the light brigade!

Food for the famished!



Red velvet ribbons and magic above!

Snow is glistening!

Santa was there!

Art Club

The Art-II students formed a new organization this year—the Art Club. The new group initiated itself with a bake sale. They also played the important role of making the scenery for the school musical, "South Pacific." The artists of Belvidere High School can be found in Miss Krueger's room fourth hour every day.

Would you like to be a teacher? The fifty-six members of F.T.A. express this desire. F.T.A. is advised and encouraged by Miss Brannah. Through the knowledge gained from guest speakers, trips to Rock Valley College, and the local student-teaching program, they learn about this distinguished profession.

Stimulating interest in teaching is its goal.

Belvi

The Belvi staff presents this book to you. We have put a lot of time and a measureless amount of work into its production. Belvi finds a home in Mr. Waterman's room, right across from the library. In the flurry of dummy sheets, thousands of pictures, ink pads, grease pencils, rulers, proportion slides, and carbon lay-outs, we save the memories of a year. Pushed by our editors to meet the deadlines, frantically seizing you for pictures, and desperately balancing the books, we have compiled and published a book—the Belvi '68.

Bel-Hi

A constant surge of activity can be seen in Mr. Packard's room, for this is the lair of the Bel-Hi staff. The news must be stalked; students must be captured on film; and deadlines must be met. In addition, the paper has the responsibility of publishing student opinions and student accomplishments—the latter being the literary page. The newspaper—the informer of the common people, our endless book.

A new language—a new club—German club. With Mr. Grover as an adviser, German Club has developed into an active and interesting organization. The members have had a German Christmas party, and they plan to attend a German play in Chicago. They have guest speakers, and slides are shown. If anyone doubted the success of this new club, he can file them under UNNECESSARY because German Club has been well received and is here to stay.

The most able athletes of Belvidere High School—those who have earned a Varsity letter—are the members of B-Club, advised by Mr. Adam. In '67-'68, they offered athletic warm-up jackets to the boys, co-operated in the Student-Faculty Basketball Game, and traditionally owned and operated the refreshment stands. Plans to hold a B-Club Dance were also made.

von der Linden, Morris, McKenna—Three of the best!

Fightin' Varsity

A sharp crack splits the air. An angry kick of running feet, a roaring crowd, the piercing shriek of a whistle and the low groan of a disgusted player—this is football. With it comes the glory of victory or the "agony of defeat." So it was with our Bucs as they fought their way through an exciting season in '67.

The first game found us losing at home to an alert Woodstock team 18—0 in a poor defensive game. We sought revenge against DeKalb but came up short again, bowing 20—6 to the hard-hitting Barbs.

The next week became one long practice, but it paid off in a great victory over Harlem. It was the sweetest victory ever as we stomped them 27—6. Then came state-ranked West who shut us out badly. Against East (the next Friday) a real tough defensive battle unfolded as we bowed stubbornly 6—0 in our Homecoming game. The spirit didn't carry over to Freeport, though, as we blanked 27—0 in a game where nothing went right.

Brereton, S. Braun, S. Nelson, F. Elliot, T. Whitfield, Row 3; K. Suhr, G. Church, G. Norem, F. Maxwell, D. Claeyssens, R. Zichur, B. Blose, P. Holiday, B. Junker, D. Gorham, L. Hyser, R. Totz, D. Sell, J. Baird, M. McDonald, S. Henniger.

Defending champs Boylan were next. Fourth quarter mistakes finally killed us 18—7 in a really tough game. League-leading Guilford then caught us flat-footed and scooted off to a 28—0 win on a cold, snowy field. Auburn was the last team as we brought the curtain down on the football season. It was a muddy, exciting football game as we slid to a dead-lock 6—6.

Thanks to great coaching we placed three players on the Big 8 conference first string. They were fullback John Glaser, tackle Bruce (Kong) Junker, and safety Rob Gamlin.

After the last game the players put the old, familiar gear away, some for a year, and others never to put it back on again. There was an air of regret that maybe they could have done just a little bit better mixed with a feeling of deep pride for Belvidere High School. This is a feeling I hope will always be in Belvidere, because always to us, Bucs are best!

Sophs Show Ability

Led by head coach Jim Barr and defensive coach Scott Berry, this year's edition of the sophomore football team played far better than their 2—6—1 record and fifth place finish in the conference indicated.

In the first two games of the year, both non-conference games, we came out with a 6—6 tie with Marion Central of Woodstock, and lost to a strong DeKalb team by a score of 31—7.

The next week we opened our conference schedule against Harlem, getting soundly trounced, 26—0.

The next two weeks we played much improved football, dropping a hard fought 19—7 decision to Rockford West, and coming out on the short end of a 26—0 score against a Rockford East team that was undefeated in conference play.

The following week, against Freeport, we showed we knew how to play football by dropping them 19—7 for our first conference victory.

In a bruising game against a hard hitting Boylan team the following week, we were defeated in the last minute of play, 12—7, on a desperation touchdown pass.

Next week at Beyer Stadium we were defeated by a well-balanced Guilford team, 26—7 in a game that was played in extremely cold weather. Our final game of the year was against Auburn, and we were determined to beat them to stay out of the basement of the conference. This we did, 6—0, in a game that was played in the mud at Legion Field.

With each game, our team got better and better, and next year we hope to pick up right where we left off, making Belvidere a Big Eight champ.

Nineteen-sixty-seven—far from a winning season. Coach Jim Hansen's varsity harriers were winless in dual competition, and none the better in triangulars and quadrangulars. However, they did capture third place out of fourteen teams in the Crystal Lake Invitational. Leading the pack for varsity this year were Greg Oates, Don Bounds, and Porter Nelson.

Belvidere's junior varsity fared a bit better this year. Opening the season at Belvidere Park, they defeated Auburn and lost to Freeport. They went on to win dual meets at both Elgin and at home against East. After defeating Boylan in the Boylan Triangular, they finished the season with a four and ten record.

With a little improvement from its J.V.'s the team can look forward to a better season next year. It is certain they will set a high goal and strive hard to reach it.

Varsity Unlocks Key to Spirit

In past years our "Bucs" have floundered through disasterous seasons, but no more. This year, through the superb coaching of Jim Hanson and Phil Martin, we threw a big scare into the basketball powers of the Big 8.

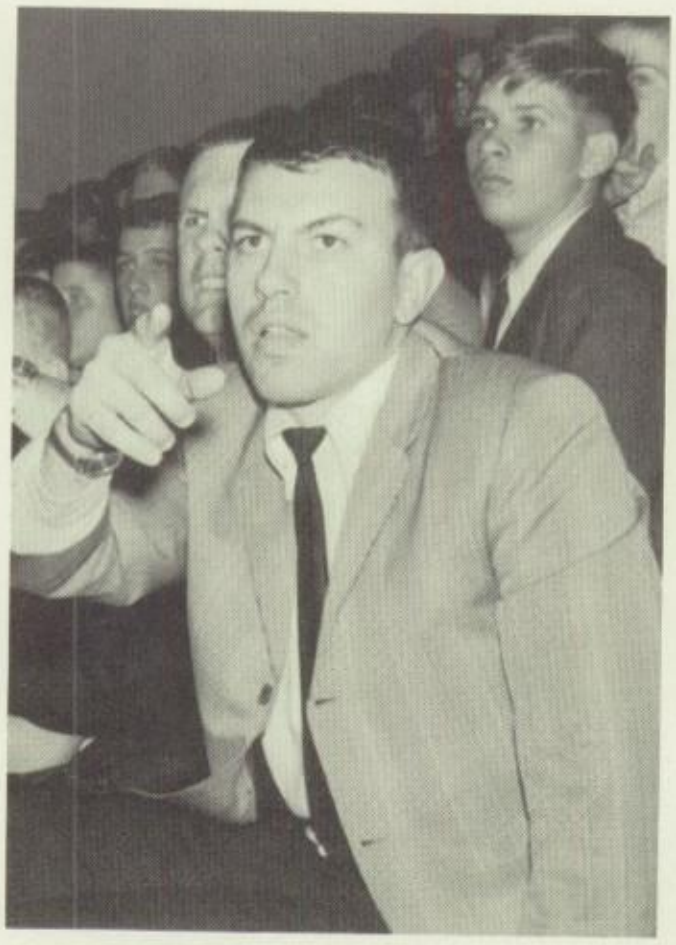
We opened the season in DeKalb on a good note by beating Kaneland in a close game. As the season progressed, we were always right in the thick of each game, battling our opponent right down to the wire. And each time we played, more and more people came to see the Purple and Gold play their best ball in years.

With the team came a new spirit. It was more than just a feeling; it was deep rooted pride. The team started a winning tradition, and now it will have to be carried on.

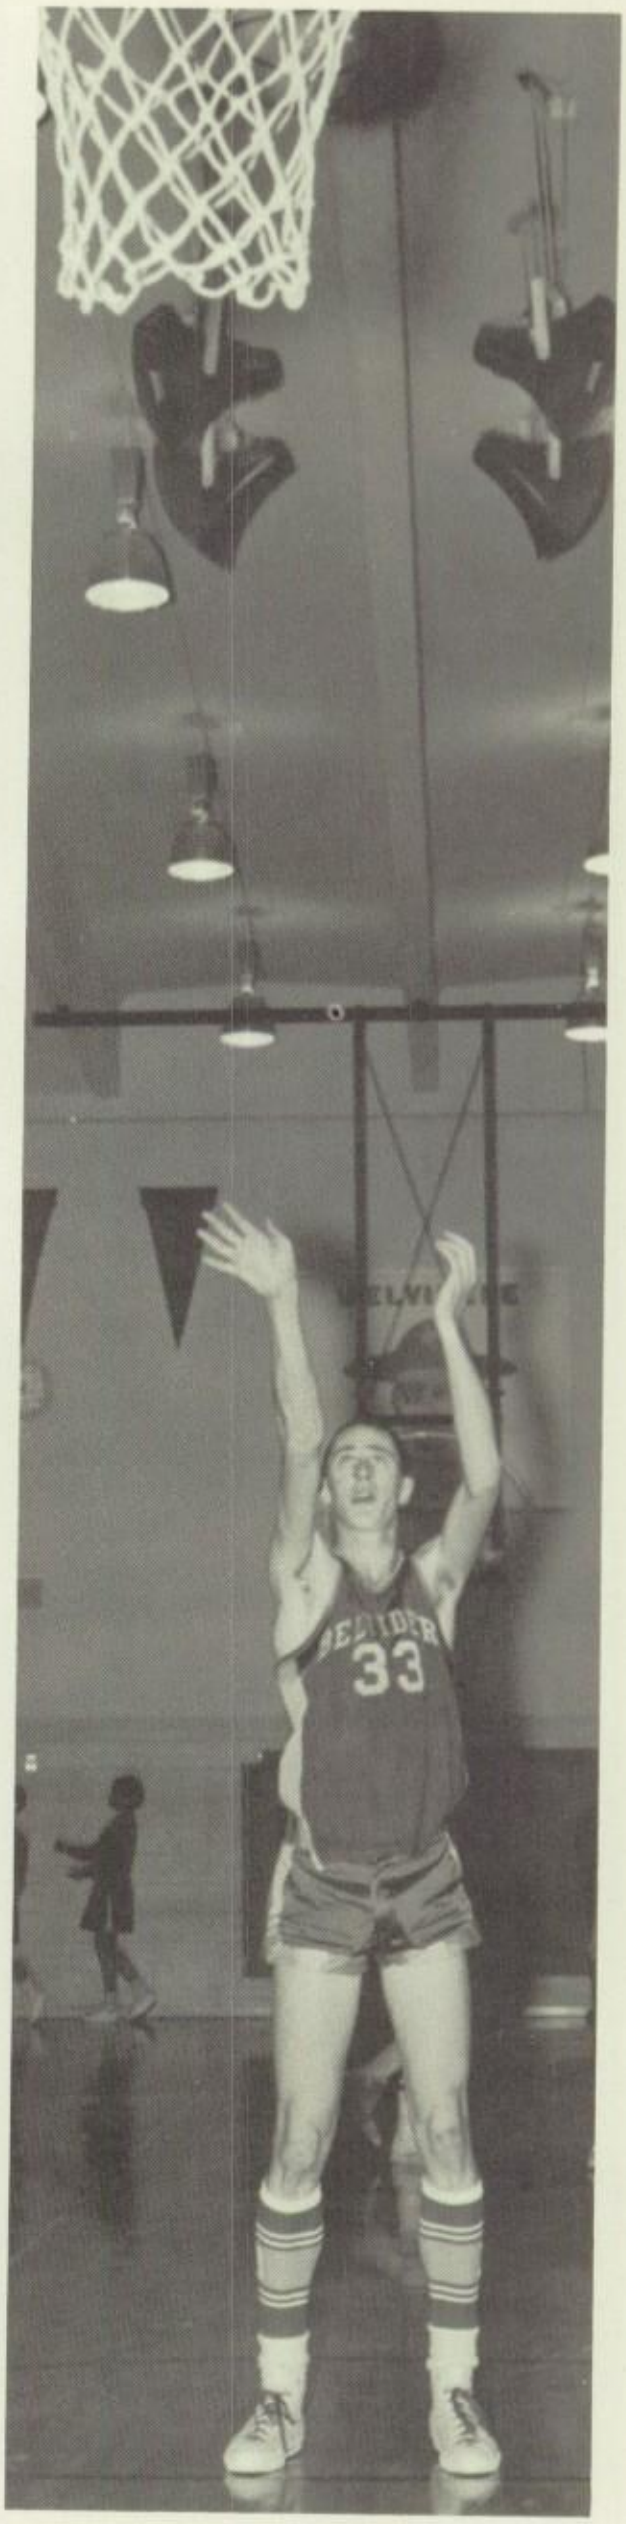
Each game brought the team a step closer to perfection, until at the end no one took Belvidere for granted. The payoff for hard work and determination came when we smothered Guilford, tops in the Big 8, in the last game. This threw the Big 8 race into a four-way tie for first. Though our season was only 9—15, it showed a marked improvement over previous years.

In the regional against West, we came from a 23 point deficit only to end the season losing 64—59. As coach Hanson always put it, "No one is ever happy with a loss." But no one could deny that coach Hanson and his crew did their best and that Belvidere could never be prouder.

Coach Hanson contemplates the future.



Coach Martin disputes a call.



Pundt looks for a way out.

Get that rebound!

Sophs Try Hard

Led by head coach Fred von der Linden and assistant Alan Packard, the Sophomore basketball team finished the year with a slate of 1—20.

Plagued with lack of height in almost every contest they entered, the Little Bucs kept their never give-up attitude, and not once did they quit before the final horn sounded.

Their lone victory of the year came in their opening game of the season against Marengo, 45—39, at the Prince Niblet Tourney. After that contest, they played several good ball games but could never muster enough in the final stanza to pull out a victory.

Besides their Marengo victory, the Little Bucs probably played their best ball games against Canton and Sycamore, who, at the time they faced the Belvidere five, had slates of 15—1 and 16—2 respectively. We were defeated by Canton, 45—40, and by Sycamore, 51—40, in games that were battled right down to the wire.

Although the team did not win too many games this year, all basketball-minded people at BHS are looking to next year, and hoping for a winning season in the Big Eight. It could arrive through much hard work and the all important ingredient of spirit.

Behind the spirited coaching of Bob DeBoer and Gary Carlton, the freshmen team fought its way to a 5—11 season mark. It was a tough season with several close games, which could have been reversed in their favor. Though they lost their first six games, they played .500 ball for the remainder of the season. Their style of play enabled them to work as a team in beating their opponents. We are looking for them to continue in their winning way.

Varsity Fares Well

As in past years, Coach Morris whipped up a few magic ingredients and combined them for another successful year of B.H.S. wrestling. Adding a few promising juniors to a small core of tested seniors, the team fought to a 8—6—1 dual record. They also fared well in tournament action, winning two and coming close on two others.

The team started well by winning two but then losing one and tying Freeport. They switched to winning again with three in a row, but then lost three exciting meets in a row after close battles. After an inspiring sweep of the Harvard Invitational, the Bucs placed a close fifth in Lake Forest against many tough teams. The rest of the season was a see-saw battle, eventually ending up in their 8—6—1 record.

The climax of the season arrived with the district and sectional meets, matching the best in the area against our Bucs. Don Pavlak won these to advance downstate, where everyone went to see him capture second place.

Congratulations to a fine team with lots of determination and pride. You showed everyone that "Bucs are best!"

Sophs Capture Crown

Again, this season, under the watchful eye of Coach Goeser, our sophomore wrestling team tallied an impressive 10—1 record. These persistent wrestlers practiced many long, hard hours, enabling them to capture the Big Eight title for the second straight year. This is something new, for no other team has been able to accomplish this feat.

In the season's opening meet, Belvidere crushed its hapless opponent, Harlem, 43—11. After slipping by Hononegah, our grapplers racked up an impressive 48—10 victory over Freeport. In fine winning form, the team went on to win six more straight duels, before bowing to Crystal Lake by seven points. After defeating Harvard, The Little Bucs were ready for the Big Eight meet.

As in the previous years, Belvidere waded into competition and came up with conference title holders and the first place trophy. Surely, the boys should be congratulated on a fine year, and we know that they will continue their winning tradition in the years to come.

Each spring, cries of "Got that spirit?" and "Victory, victory, that's our cry!" echo through the halls of B.H.S. It's the time of cheerleading tryouts for the upcoming year, where shyness is lost amid the competitive spirit of the girl's preparing their cheers.

This year we had five super-great girls: Vicki Venezia, Marsha Ecklund, Mary Sue Newman, Linda Jarvis, and Kathy LaPinta. They yelled through many cold football games, four months of exciting basketball games, and, of course, all those lively pep assemblies. We are happy to have such a loyal bunch of the best cheerleaders in the Big Eight!

Next came the sophomores. They sure had lots of spirit and were really loyal. Of course, we can't forget the freshmen. Those seven just never quit trying to yell loud!

New this year were wrestling cheerleaders: Cindy Cormie, Sue Eckroad, Chris Koppen, and Mary Beth Kamholtz. They really kept the fans yelling during all the exciting meets. We hope they're here to stay.

Varsity Track

This year, under the direction of coaches Ollie Benzel, George Goeser, and Scott Berry, the '68 track team tried its luck on the brand new all-weather track, one of the finest in the state. Though hopes were high for a good team, the tracksters could not muster any strength in the sprinting events and thus were handicapped right from the start.

The field events proved to be the bright spot for the team. All year, Bruce Junker tossed the shot, gaining badly needed first place points. Eventually his talent earned him a trip down-state after winning the district title. Ted Schiltz consistently placed first in the pole vault, continually trying to break the record of twelve feet set in '66. Another outstanding performer was Steve Spencer, who paced the way in both hurdle events and always came up with a win.

Though the record was only 3—7, the season was not a total loss. Valuable experience was gained by the junior varsity, and there is a strong possibility of a winning season next year. With lots of determination and sheer will power, the teams in the near-future can be as powerful as those of the past.

Baseball '68

After hanging up the old baseball shoes for another year, we can again look back on the Varsity season without shame. Struggling to a 9—13 finish, we played with a starting line-up that consisted mostly of juniors! Although the record may sound bad, each game was fought until the last out was made. While whipping all but two of the Big Eight powers, we were shutout only twice during the entire season.

Lack of experience and a slow start by the pictching staff kept the Bucs offbalance as they tried to gain momentum in the early season. Lead by junior Paul Pedersen and senior Don Plumley, our hitting attack was reasonably consistent but could not always pull us through.

Heading into the District we had won three of the last four games and hopes were high. In two tough games, we squeaked by Harvard 3—2 and Marengo 4—2. Against Harlem we fell short of our goal, losing by a 7—2 count.

Although the season was not our best one, everyone knows that "Experience is a good teacher." We hope this experience will prepare us for a great future.

Headed by coach Bill Woods, the Junior Varsity team had another successful year. Freshmen

a reflection of carefreeness

Freshman Class Officers: John Strom, Treasurer; Tom Ryan, President; Connie Swanson, Secretary; Bernie Meyers, Vice President.

As pieces of a mirror reflect part of a person, incidences in your life reflect on you as a whole. As Freshmen you have reflection on the past and hopes for an even greater future. You have crossed the first milestone in your high school venture, and now await what is in store for you in the remaining years. Your adventures, as freshmen, which now seem trivial, will someday be fond memories as you reflect on them.

Your class officers, Tom Ryan, president; Bernie Meyers, vice president; Connie Swanson, secretary; and John Strom, treasurer, have done their best to serve you and lead you through your first year.

What you will be depends on what you do now. Make your future years in Belvidere High School as much to remember and reflect back on as your Freshman Year. Leave your mark!

Sophomores

a reflection of thoughtfulness

At the end of your sophomore year, you are now in the middle of the road to success. As you reflect back, you can remember starting down that road as freshmen, when it seemed as if every turn in the road was put there to confuse you.

But this year, your sophomore year, the road became straight and clear, and nothing could interfere with your progress. You were led by a fine group of officers: Mary Ann Steurer, president; Greg McCoy, vice president; Susan Anderson, secretary; and Roger Larson, treasurer.

It was a busy year, finding that first part-time job and learning to drive (even though Dad might not think you did). You survived another year of filling in circles on the ever present IBM cards, including NEDT and Kuder Preference Tests. Working on the homecoming float, attending the G.A.A. formal, and ordering your class rings are memories you will never forget.

Now you exchange the title of "underclassmen" for the glorious and coveted title of "upperclassmen." As you reflect upon your junior and senior years at Belvidere High School, you know you will continue to travel the road to success to the very end.

Juniors

a reflection of aspirations

Junior Class Officers: Randy Smith, vice-president; Gale Newcomer, treasurer; Linda Parker, president; Sue Eckroad, secretary; pictured with Charley.

This past year presented a wealth of experiences, some familiar, others entirely new for you, the Junior class. After acquiring the status of upperclassmen and emerging as leaders at Belvidere High School, your future begins to take shape.

The Junior's third Homecoming reflects the student's ability and spirit. As the first major event of the year, it also establishes a pattern for future accomplishments.

Juniors eagerly anticipate the G.A.A. Christmas Formal, not only as an enjoyable dance itself, but also as a dress rehearsal for the most exciting event of the year, Prom.

Now with just one year remaining, many important decisions are to be faced which will determine your future.

Seniors

Non-involvement preserves nothing; therefore involve yourself.

—class motto

Senior Class Officers: President, Jill Schmelzer replacing John Berry; Secretary, Jean Severson; and Treasurer, Ted Manley.

Our past four years in high school will reflect on our future. Past events and friends will be remembered.

We have been noted for being one of the friendliest classes to attend Belvidere High School. Accordingly, we renewed and promoted the class spirit that had been lying dormant for so many years.

Our class started new innovations in the school; voting on prom, new class rings, the first write-in candidate to win an election. We were the first class to decorate the new high school during Christmas, to win first place for our float three years out of four, to win second place for two years in the Christmas decoration competition, and to start an art club. Our final innovation was our class play, "Ah, Wilderness," the first play to be put on in the cafeteria.

Now graduation approaches and is suddenly gone. Some leave crying for joy; some just crying; while a few do both as they move anxiously toward the future, yet still looking back over their shoulders at what has come to pass.

Relief

A Yearbook Compendium:
to sit among a stack of books;
to dwell among the wads of paper;
to work deftly a proportion wheel,
a ruler, a grease pencil;
to pause with pencil in hand and wait for the inspiration to come . . .
often to wait into the twilight hours;
simply, to experience frustration, exhaustion, relief, and pride . . . pride for a sense of accomplishment to be shared with you through the 1968 Belvi.
